The Significance of Revival

Revival serves as the cornerstone and understanding of the work of the Holy Spirit! Ministering to our Lord and Praying is the KEY to receiving from His presence being fill again and again!

Defining Revival: Revival can be defined as a deepened spiritual hunger and thirst within a person who is seeking to connect to the realm of the Spirit, always marked by God's tangible presence of the Holy Spirit among seeking believers. It is this encounter in the realm of His Spirit which is the portal in which we connect with and are filled from being with our Lord!

Perpetuating Inner Revival:

There is only one kind of Revival that is the "Inner Revival" which we receive at the beginning, the encounter where He imparts His Spirit within us. But that's not the end, it is our beginning! Yahshua said, His Kingdom [the realm of His Spirit] would be imparted to connect us to Him each day! This "Enlivenment" is His Spirit comes to dwelling in us, but we also are to renew being within His presence and receive from His filling us daily! We are spiritually sustained through this continuous filling and refilling. By nurturing an His active relationship of imparting His Holy Spirit again and again, sustain us and we are filled with spiritual fervor and passion. Yahshua talked to us about this when He told us that within us would come rivers of living water then to flow out of us to this lost and upside down fallen world. What is actually happening is that the river of life is flowing from God's throne and into believers in Yahshua, that is the river of His Spirit that effects us as we receive His presence daily!

Scriptural Insight:

The practice of being filled with the Holy Spirit is a recurring theme in sacred texts. So we all should be connecting with His as often and possible.

Biblical Examples:

Numerous biblical narratives highlight as well as in our times have recorded how individuals and communities have experienced powerful outpourings of the Holy Spirit, leading to transformative experiences and empowerment through the Holy Spirit infilling us. But lets not stop there, when this connection was taught by Yahshua and molded daily when He went to a solitary place for communion with His Father!

From Glory to Glory:

The expression “from glory to glory” encapsulates the ongoing journey of growth and transformation that believers are to experience through the Holy Spirit. There is actually a fresh anointing from daily to receive from His presences, which I call “The Abiding Anointing” which you can draw from. This has to do with what Yahshua said in John 14:21 about how the Father and the Son & His Spirit would join with us to have intimate communion! Go, read that verse and see!

Context of Yahshua’ Resurrection Power Our Source:

Yahshua’ resurrection was not an isolated event; it was witnessed by many in the first century. Scriptural and Historical records show that these witnesses were instrumental in spreading His message, reflecting the immense impact of His resurrection. The Book of Acts recounts the early church’s experiences and the empowerment they received given them to share the message of Yahshua.

Acts 4:25-31 Overview:

In Acts 4:25-31, the apostles are portrayed as ferently praying for boldness and empowerment from God was given them for the work of the ministry! The passage reflects the historical opposition faced by Yahshua and His followers: It also records the power of God which through Messiah’s impartation of power to them and overcame their enemies plan to stop the Gospel. God’s power went with them and concurred the know world because they dwelt in His Orah Sphere presence. I John 1:6, 7.

Overcome’s Prayer for Boldness:

The apostles earnestly sought divine intervention, pleading for the courage to boldly proclaim God’s Word. The apostles knew that God’s hand was upon them because they were reassured daily through their divine fellowship with the Spirit of God, giving them His prefect will. When you are spending time in the “Abiding Anointing,” you can hear from God: He is your Shepherd; this is the way of hear Him being His sheep! They did. This is the way they were always directed, all because of spending time with Him and receiving fresh anointing for your daily assignment!

Signs and Wonders Following – Carrying Revival Within You

Their prayer emphasized a yearning for God to perform miracles through the name of Yahshua, reinforcing the impartation they were given reflecting the power of that same anointing at work by the power of His resurrection! The response to this prayer was remarkable, resulting in a divine shaking of the very place they gathered, symbolizing the presence and power each were given by the Holy Spirit to go out and do exploits in Yahshua’ name!

Refilling of the Holy Spirit:

Notably, the same group that experienced the outpouring in Acts 2 received a refreshing refill of the Holy Spirit. This refilling was crucial for the apostles to continue their mission with vigor:

Prayer as a Catalyst:

Pray connect us to the forth dimension Kingdom realm. It is vital to receiving empowerment from Heaven through Yahshua!

Boldness and Power:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, the apostles were enabled to bear witness that Yahshua is Messiah with boldness and signs and wonders which today is called, "Power Evangelism!"

The Role of the Holy Spirit:

The Holy Spirit is essential in the lives of believers, empowering them to carry forward the mission of Yahshua. Being filled with the Spirit is crucial for:

Demonstrating Great Power:

The apostles bore witness to Jesus' resurrection with great power, which was attributed to the Holy Spirit's influence.

Great Grace:

Great Grace is a working grace according to Scripture which bring about the power from God to overcome!

Acts 4:33 signifies that great grace was upon them, highlighting how the manifestations of the Holy Spirit led to significant wonders and community impact!

Spiritual Exploits and Their Purpose:

The spiritual exploits of believers emerge as powerful testaments to the living presence of Yahshua the Messiah. These actions serve multiple purposes:

Demonstration of Yahshua' Alive Presence now walking within the Apostles and the body of Messiah; these deeds of believers powerfully testify to the ongoing life of Yahshua living through them.

Distinction from Mere Man Made Religion:

The active presence of Yahshua within believers distinguishes genuine faith from mere man made religious practice.

Lessons from the Early Church

The early church's experiences provide invaluable lessons for contemporary believers of our times.

We have discussed the Key through this small book which is:

Necessity of Continuous Refilling:

The early believers recognized the significance of being continually refilled with the Holy Spirit to sustain their spiritual vitality.

Living, Enlivened Spiritual Strength Which Abiders Carry:

The strength received from the Holy Spirit was crucial for their mission and effectiveness in proclaiming the message of Yahshua doing signs and wonders in His Name. Through these themes in the small book of continuous spiritual refilling, the necessity of inner revival and empowerment by the Holy Spirit, believers today can cultivate a thriving spiritual life that actively reflects and can carry out Yahshua' mission to plunder hell and populated heaven!

Thanks...
