346b gaura nn adultery

346c gayara nn adulterer

346d giyura nn proselyte

AMEN, STEADFAST, TRUST:

Amen is one of two words that transliterates to every language. There is absolutely no logic to translate it Surely, Truly, or Verily.

Amen is the “so be it” of Scripture. When Yah Shua said, “Amen, Amen, I word unto you” he was assuring us that He was giving His word, and that there was no further discussion of the matter. See: Word.

Amen is the root of our word for trust — sometimes translated Faith or Believe.

110a 'amin adv Amen

110b 'amina adj steadfast, trustworthy

110c 'amina'it adv steadfastly, trustworthily

110d eteman vv entrust, trust

110g haimanuta nn trust

ANGEL:

The Aramaic Malaka, the Hebrait Malak, and the Yaunait Angelos all mean Messenger. “Behold I send my angel” (Yah Chanan the Baptizer) seems to indicate that angels are human beings. Some understand that the Angel of Yah Veh in the Old Covenant was the manifestation of our Lord Yah Shua the Messiah in the Old Covenant. If this be so, then Yah Chanan 1:14 ought rightly say, “And the Word, being flesh”.

909 malaka nn angel

1640d marduta nn discipline

1640f raduya nn disciplinarian

DO, VISIT, WORK:

The words do and deed are used very sparingly in Scripture. Its alternate meaning is visit — not as a friendly house call, but rather in terms of visiting judgment.

The primary word for a task is work: and for performing a task, work, serve, and enslave.

1218a sear vv do, visit

1218b surana nn deed, visitation

1218c saura nn visitor

1247a ebad vv enslave, serve, work

1417c pulhana nn service, occupation, worship

1417d palhuta nn service

1417e palaha nn laborer, servant

DOCTOR:

A doctor, in Scripture, is one who doctrinates a doctrine. These words have no association with physician — one who heals.

788a yilep vv doctrinate

788b yulpana nn doctrine

788c malpana nn doctor, didactic

788d malpanuta nn doctrine

EARTH, EARTHLY:

The planet on which we exist: often contrasted with the heavens.

209a ara nn earth

209b 'ar'anaya adj earthly

1339a 'apra nn dust, earth

1339b 'aprana adj dusty, earthy

ENLIVEN:

To give life.

LIVE:

To exist:

Although some the following definitions imply salvation, the Aramaic brings out the giving of life. To exemplify: All humanity is originally dead in sin — having no reason to be saved. However, all humanity, having been dead in sin, may, through trust in Yah Shua the Messiah, be enlivened to eternal life.

HUSHA:

(Hebraic, Hosea) (Yaunait, Osea) Enlivener, Life Giver:

HUSHA NA:

(Hebraic, Hosha Na) (Yaunait, Hosanna)

Husha Na appears in Psalm 118:25. See the exeGeses parallel Bible. This is also the shout of the people in what is known as the Triumphant Entry of Yah Shua into Uri Shelem. Note that the people were not shouting words of acclamation, but rather, pleading to be saved from persecution.

YAH SHUA:

(Hebraic, Yah Shua) (Yaunait, Iesous) (King James, Joshua, Jesus)

1718e tesbuhta nn glorified, glory

GOD, YAH VEH:

The primary difference between the Hebraic and the Aramaic words for God are the vowel structures which were added in the eighth century.

Neither the Yaunait or Aramaic distinguish between the title, God or the Name, Yah Veh. Whenever the words quote an Old Covenant verse which indicated the name, we so translated it.

57 'il pn El (Hebraic for God)

85a 'alaha tt God, Yah Veh

85b 'alahuta nn Godhead

85c 'alahaya adj Godly

85d 'alahta nn goddess

1092a netar vv guard

1092b matarta nn guard

1092c natura nn guard

1092d neturta vv guarding, on guard

HALEL, HALELU YAH:

Halel — the highest form of praise. This is the Hebrait word used in designating the Hallel Psalms. It appears in the New Covenant exactly one time. And it used by Luqa, of whom it has been said that he was not a Hebraya. However, it may be that he was a bit more learned than the other apostles. A thorough study of the manuscripts indicates that Luqa had a much richer vocabulary than all the other apostles.

Halelu Yah means, the highest form of praise to Yah: Yah being the abbreviated form of the name of our God, Yah Veh. This is that “other word” that transliterates to every language in the world.
cp: Amen.

Of great lament is that, in most Versions, Halel and Halelu Yah are translated instead of being transliterated — and that when it appears in most versions, it is seriously misspelled — except in the ExeGeses Ready Research Bible, the ExeGeses Parallel Bible and this Aramaic New Covenant.

493 halel vv halel

494 haleluya int Halelu Yah

HALLOW, HOLY:

Hallow is to cause to be holy.

Most dictionaries define holy as meaning, set apart. This definition, in the mind of this exegete, is much too constricting. For Yah Veh misvahed us to be holy, even as he is holy. It seems to be more related to wholeness — that is, without blemish in its entirety.

643a hasya adj holy

643b hasyuta nn holiness

643c hasi vv absolve, hallow

643d husaya nn hallowing

1543a qudsa nn holiness

To restore to wholeness. Physicians, in Scripture are referred to as healers. cp: Doctor.

140a 'asya nn healer

140b 'asyuta nn healing

140c 'asi vv heal

HEAR, OBEY:

In Scripture, to hear means much more than the ear accepting the audible sound: it also includes hearkening (to give attention) and obeying. Remember the verses, “They have ears to hear and hear not”?

1798a sema vv hear, hearken

1798b masme’a nn hearing

1798c masma’ta nn hearing

HOUSE, BETH:

Often compounded with other words. For example, Beth El means House of God.

251 baita nn Beth, house

252 beit ’asire nn guardhouse

HUMAN, MALE, FEMALE, MAN, WOMAN:

Scripture distinguishes between male, female, man, woman, and humanity — and for a very important reason. For example, Yah Shua is not the son of man, for He was birthed by the Holy Spirit through a woman. Yah Shua is referred to as a man, but never as the Son of man. Sons of humanity is also used when referring to humans in general.

129a 'nasa nn human, humanity

129b 'nasuta nn humanity

131 'antta nn woman

291 bar'nassa nn son of humanity

326a gabra nn man

432 dekra adj male

HYPOCRIZE, HYPOCRITE, FACE:

Two totally different words, often used in conjunction with each other.

'ape is also a word for face, and facebread, which is usually translated showbread.

166 'ape nn face, hypocrite, showbread

1111a nesab vv take, hypocryze

I, I — I AM:

The Aramaic uses the same root to indicate I and we. In this instance, the Yaunait text more closely follows the format of the Hebraic text with the exact words, I AM. In the Yaunait text there is only one instance where I AM does not refer to Yah Shua.

In the Aramaic, the I AM is indicated with "I — I" with the "AM" implied. It is also used for emphasis.

116a I 'ena 'ena pro I — I AM

116b 'ena pro I, we

JUDGE:

To declare a verdict.

413a dina nn judgment

413b dan vv judge

1441c puqada nn misvah

NAVE: PRIESTAL PRECINCT:

The Tabernacle of the Congregation has two portions: (1) The Holies, also known as the Priestal Precinct, where the Rabbis taught and the congregation listened: and (2) the Holy of Holies, also known as the Nave, where the Priest entered once a year to offer for the sins of the congregation.

The nave is the portion that was opened when the veil was ripped from above to below. Nausa refers to the nave — whereas Haikla does not make this distinction. Therefore the distinguishments have been through examination of the Hebraic and Yaunait manuscripts.

489 haikla nn priestal precinct, nave

1081 nausa nn nave

PARACLETE:

One who intercedes. Our Lord yah Shua the Meshiah is our paraclete: 1 Yah Chanan 2:1 — who sent us another paraclete, the Holy Spirit: Yah Chanan 14:16, 26, 15:26, 16:7.

712f talel vv overshadow

1775a seken vv tabernacle

1775b maskena nn tabernacle

SHALAM: SHALOM: SHELEM:

This is, to me, the most interesting word study of Scripture. When I was preparing the ExeGeses Ready Research Bible, I received what I felt, was a “holy hunch” (not a Scriptural term). And that was this, that when our Lord Yah Shua the Messiah hung on the stake, that he uttered not, “It is finished” but the one word, “Shelem”. And then when I discovered the Aramaic text, I was vindicated.

This whole group of words has to do with being fully satisfied and satisfying fully — which include (1) whole contentment, (2) the payment of a debt, (3) even in avenging and/or taking revenge. Even the name of the wisest man in the world is placed in this category.

Note that peace and pacify are two distinctly different words.

1009a mela vv complete, fill, fulfill

SHEOL:

the abode of the dead in the Old Covenant. David, in prophesying of our Lord Yah Shua the Meshiah promised, “You leave not my soul in sheol” And Paulaus, in Hebraya, assures us, He did not. 1 Petrus 3:19 tells us that when our Lord Yah Shua Meshiah died, he went to sheol and spoke to the souls there. And you know the rest — that many of the souls resurrected and were seen by many.

cp 1 Petrus 3:19 with any other version.

1764 seyul nn sheol

SHEPHERD, SHEPHERDOM:

The primary meaning is that of a tender — one who tends herds — and in this instance, not necessarily sheep. Psalm 23:1 begins, Yah Veh Ra’ah. Compare that to 1686b.

Shepherddom is another word Yah Shua uses for Sovereigndom.

1686a rea vv shepherd

1686b raya vv tend, herd, shepherd

1686c mar’ita nn shepherddom

1686d reya nn pasture

SIGH, GROAN:

— to exhale audibly with a long deep breath. Most versions mistranslate that God ‘repented’ for having made man, when in reality, He sighed. Also the Holy Spirit sighs when interceding for us in our prayers and petitions.

121a ’enah vv sigh

121b tenhata nn sigh

121c ’az vv sigh, groan

SIGN:

Spiritual signals, usually indicating evidence of Scriptural truth. The sun, moon, and stars, the sign of Yaunan, the turning of water into wine. Often mistranslated, miracle. Although the signs were miraculous, their purpose was to indicate Scriptural truth.

218a 'ata nn sign

1082 nap vv wave, sign

1120a napsa nn soul

1120b nepisa nn time to breathe (inhale)

1120c napsanaya adj soulical

SPIRIT, HOLY SPIRIT, SPIRIT OF HOLINESS, SPIRITUALS, WIND:

Spirit — that area pertaining to the will. A spirit may be demonic, human, or holy. Spirit is the area in which we are urged to control the soulical and the physical.

Holy Spirit, Spirit of Holiness — the Holy Spirit has two titles in the New Covenant: (1) the Holy Spirit, and (2) the Spirit of Holiness. The use of the term, Holy Ghost, comes from the Germanic languages, wherein the term Geist translates to Ghost. However in the English language, Ghost refers to the spirit of one who is dead, which we know, He is not.

Spirituals — those enduements and endowments the Holy Spirit gives to whom he wills. 1 Qurintaus 12:1—8, Hebraya 2:4.

Wind: in the Hebraic and the Aramaic, ruha is the word for both spirit and wind. So great discernment must be exercised when this word is confronted. For example, in Yechezq El 37: one must discern whether the wind blew over the dead bones, or whether the Spirit puffed into the dead bones and they came to life.

643b hasyuta nn holiness
